

ULTISSIMO WINS HIGHLY PRESTIGIOUS PROPERTY AWARD

1st July 2008

The results of the CNBC Europe & Africa Property Awards 2008 have just been revealed and Ultissimo is delighted to announce that it has won an award in the category of Best Re-Development Italy (multiple units). The award will be presented at a glittering gala dinner to be held at the Sheraton Park Lane Hotel in London on 27th September.

The fact that Ultissimo earned one of these coveted awards is sure proof that Italy cannot only compete but also triumph within the highly competitive Europe & Africa property arena.

Having been given this high recommendation by its peers, the company is now entitled to display the CNBC Europe & Africa Property Awards' logo with pride. This symbol of excellence will be recognised and appreciated by the public who are becoming increasingly well informed and discerning about the properties they seek to buy.

Entries were judged by a panel of professionals whose collective knowledge of the property industry is second to none and unsurpassed by any other property awards.

Chaired by Eric Pickles, British Shadow Secretary of State, this year's judges included Helen Shield, editor-in-chief of International Homes magazine; Peter Bolton King, chief executive of the National Association of Estate Agents; Phil Spencer, property expert and presenter of Channel 4's Location and Relocation TV shows; Imtiaz Farookhi, chief executive of the National House Building Council; Christopher Hall, past president National Association of Estate Agents; Thijs Staff, International Consortium of Real Estate Agents Association (ICREA); Alejandro Escurdero, SIMA; Kirkor Ajderhanyan, French Real Estate Federation (FNAIM); Graham Norwood of the Daily Mail; David Hoppit, property writer; Jill Keene, editor of International Homes magazine; Diana Yakely, chairman British Interior Design Association; and Tad Zurlinden, Association of Relocation Professionals.-2-

Managing Director Paul Belcher said of the award: "We have a relentless focus on achieving excellence in all aspects of our business and we are delighted that the CNBC Europe & Africa Property Awards have recognised this."

"Our clients have been telling us that we stand out from the crowd. Our tailored, comprehensive services and the quality of our design and craftsmanship is distinctive. This award reinforces our confidence that we are leaders in our field"

He adds: "Winning this award is a real accolade for us, as it represents the culmination of a lot of hard work in building up the company."
